RULES

1. The term "bill" means Electric, Sewer, Water and Refuse.

2. Depositor agrees that the bank's right with respect to each bill shall be the same as if each bill were a check drawn on the bank and signed personally by the depositor and that the bank be fully protected in honoring each bill.

3. This authority is to remain in effect until revoked upon 30 days' written notice by the bank, utility company, or depositor.

4. Banks' sole responsibility and duty shall be to charge the depositor's account for the amount shown on the utility bill and to promptly remit said amount to the utility company, however, in the event any bill is dishonored, the bank shall be under no liability whatsoever.

5. In the event the bill presented is in error or is incorrect in any respect, depositor's recourse shall be solely against the utility company.

6. Bank is under no obligation to notify depositor of either payment or dishonor of utility bills. Bills will be returned unpaid to the utility company if depositor's account does not contain sufficient funds to cover the amount of said bills.
